TIMES WOMAN IN THE WORK-HOUSE.

Arrested, tried and sentenced by in the workhouse. Under the nom de police of Florence Bergen she served three days of the time in order to discover if there was any basis of truth in complaints made to The Times of the food, care and treatment given female prisoners.

Her quest was eminently successful ing things relating to the management of the institution.

All the facts will be related by her in the columns of The Evening Times, beginning today, with appropriate illustrations.

Her story will furnish a complete and reliable pen picture of the fate of a woman who has passed the borders of respectable society and is branded by the police.
